Dear Sir,

Greetings of the Day!

I wanted to thank you for being a wonderful mentor of our students for the past two weeks. Not only did you provide candid career guidance during the internship period but also cultivated a passion in them to work for the hospitality industry. Once again, thanks for sharing your time, knowledge, and advice with our students. Your expertise and knowledge shared will definitely help our students develop professionally. I'd love to stay in touch with you as my students maneuver their career change. If there are any openings in your department down the road, I hope you'll let me know so that our students can apply.

We look forward to working with you in future.

With best regards,
