

Internship report
FAMILY RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
2024

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2025

As part of their curriculum, fourth-semester Family Resource Management students participated in a 30-day industry training program in December 2025. This collaborative effort involved various esteemed organizations i.e. Madhubhan resort and spa (Anand), Sayyaji hotel (Vadodara), Aimer events (Ahmedabad), Harthvi Events (Nadiad), Comfy Furniture (Vallabh Vidyanagar) and Yaam architects and interiors (Vallabh Vidyanagar)

This program successfully bridged the gap between classroom theory and real-world practice in hospitality and event management. Students gained hands-on experience in hotels, learning essential operations like food and beverage service, housekeeping, and front office tasks directly from department heads. They also received comprehensive event planning training from Aimer and Harthvi events, covering everything from conceptualization to executing various events, including weddings and house parties. Additionally, students learned basic to interior design concepts with Yaam Interiors and Architects.

Throughout the program, students honed their skills in guest interaction, catering to requests, organizing recreational activities, maintaining rooms, and food service. They acquired knowledge of linens, cutlery, laundry services, and the art of creating an inviting guest environment. Additionally, they observed event planners in action, gaining insight into the behind-the-scenes work involved.

By actively participating in all departments, students gained a comprehensive understanding of the hospitality industry. They diligently completed assigned tasks and meticulously documented their experiences in logbooks. Moreover, the program fostered personal development by focusing on aspects like grooming, etiquette, professionalism, communication, and leadership and also discipline. The department heads of organizations commended the interns for their commitment and dedication.

The program concluded with a certificate, stipend and a daily provision of breakfast, lunch, and high tea for the participating students.
